

MGT-361 Managing Critical Incidents for Higher Education Institutions DHS/FEMA-funded course

Is your campus prepared?

This course trains campus administrators and managers, public safety and law enforcement personnel, and other campus and community response partners to effectively manage critical incidents by applying and implementing an all-hazards, multi-disciplinary, command, and management team approach as described in the National Incident Management System's (NIMS) Incident Command System (ICS) and Multi-Agency Coordination Systems (MACS). The course places specific emphasis on the unique aspects of responding to critical incidents on higher education institution campuses and concludes with a role play exercise customized to the community in which the course is delivered. This course is taught in partnership with the International Association of Campus Law Enforcement Administrators (IACLEA).
